COACHING 4 CLERGY

Empowering Today's Spiritual Leaders

Why Coaching? Why NOW?

In the Fall of 2008 we entered into a major economic crisis. This crisis has impacted all of us. Over the past 12 months, many have down-sized, done-without and put-on-hold projects, plans and dreams. This economic crisis has also impacted many churches. (IE. putting on hold new initiatives, cutting back on staff, reining in existing outreach.)

I believe that NOW ~ during this economic crisis ~ is the perfect time to work with a coach!

Why Coaching? Why NOW?

- Your coach will keep you focused on the BIGGER picture (your God-sized goals) when you're tempted to be side-tracked by the economic wows.
- Your coach will help you identify your limiting beliefs and false assumptions that keep getting in the way. Now's a perfect time to shed these.
- A coach will tap into your greatness and giftedness so that you can be at peak performance.
- You'll be asked powerful questions, like:
  - What's God's invitation to you during this economic crisis?
  - What are the 3 or 4 unique opportunities that you can capitalize on during this economic crisis?
  - What are the first steps to begin capitalizing on these opportunities?
- Your coach will help you develop a plan of action that really works and provide support and accountability during the implementation phase.

Why Coaching? Why NOW? Those who work with a coach are 70-80% more likely to successfully achieve their goals. Now, even during this economic crisis, is the perfect time to work with a

Top Ten Reasons To Work With A Coach

Your coach will:

1. Provide motivation when strong actions are called for.
2. Ask powerful questions that launch you forward.
3. Keep you FOCUSED on what's most important.
4. Listen deeply for what's really going on or getting in the way.
5. Hold you accountable, especially when you're tempted to walk away.
6. Unconditionally support you when you take a hit.
7. Help you gain greater clarity about what you really, REALLY want.
8. Create awareness around your limiting beliefs and false assumptions.
9. Be an objective sounding board for you when making decisions.
10. Encourage GOD-sized action.
